

Thursday evening, new tables being placed. Mrs. B. E. Rainsford won the board prize and Mrs. T. A. Douglass the consolation prize—Miss Ruth McMahon was the guest of Miss Marjorie Gates in Morrieville Friday and Friday night.

The people of Unity and the Congregational Churches united in a service Sunday morning, celebrating the centennial of the treaty of peace between the United States and Great Britain.

The service was prepared by Norman B. Richardson for use in all Christian churches of America and adopted by the Unitarian association was carried out. The singing of appropriate hymns was led by the Congregational Church choir with George A. Burnham at the organ, assisted by about 30 of the children of the churches.

Excellent and appropriate addresses were made by the pastors of the churches, the Rev. F. T. Crane and the Rev. Lemuel Davis. There was a large attendance.—There were 57 present at the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school Sunday, a record attendance. The maple sugar social held by the Sunday school Saturday afternoon, was a pleasing success. There was an attendance of 56 and the receipts were about $21. Warm sugar, doughnuts and pies were served and snow was provided. There were games for the children in the afternoon and music by the Largest family in the evening.

including a song
written by himself

Including a song by Miss Larsen, accompanied by herself on the guitar. The proceeds will be used to provide Bibles for the use of the Sunday school.—Messrs. Riley, Shaw, Long, Houston, Heath and McMahon of the Stowe High school basketball team and Principal W. J. English returned Sunday from Hanover, N. H., where the team played the Hanover high school team Friday evening, the resulting score being 14 to 33 in favor of Hanover. The boys witnessed the carnival sports at Hanover Saturday, and also the games of

Twoon Yui also

Harvey Sweeney and also the game between Yale and Dartmouth Saturday evening. After the game, Sweeney was taken to the Fanny Allen hospital at Winchester, where he underwent an operation for hernia. He is doing well. His son, W. F. Carey, who accompanied him, returned home Monday. Mrs. Mary Sherbut, who has returned from a stay of several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. W. N. Douglas in Bennington, will leave this week to Burlington, where she has employment. —Carroll George.

Monday to Monday

Monday in Monticello after passing Sunday at his home in Stowe.—Mrs. John Bettie and little son of White River Junction are visiting in Stowe.—Mrs. R. B. Wilshire, who is ill at her home on West Branch with typhoid fever, is doing as well as can be expected.—Elton Forbes returned Sunday to Burlington after a few days at his home in Stowe. At the regular meeting of Mansfield Mountain Grange Saturday afternoon the program, in charge of the lecturer, Mrs. Maude Campbell, included, songs by the quartet.

chole with Mrs. A.

Campbell, included: Songs by the strange choir with Mrs. Maudie Butts at the piano; roll call, "Have I Done My Best for the Grange in 1914," a solo by Mrs. Carrie Slayton; discussion, "Resolved, that it is better to be the wife of a farmer than that of a man in any other occupation," led by Mrs. Doris Eddge; reading, Mrs.
Lena Reed of Berlin; play, "Thorns and Roses," Mrs. Maudie Butts, Mrs. Lula
West, Mrs. Bernice Moulton and Mrs.
Carrie Slayton—Charles Preston of Northfield Falls was a guest over Sunday.

at the home of M.

Mrs. Romain Ethel (Luce) Sanborn, wife of George F. Sanborn, died at their home at Stowe Park Monday noon after a several weeks' illness. She was 21 years of age and was the youngest and last survivor of the three children of Augustine C. and Susan Cook Luce. She had been the mother of five children and had survived by three, the oldest four and one-half years of age. The youngest was born January 19, died January 25.

The third child is

The third child also died in infancy. The fourth was held at the house at two o'clock Wednesday—Mrs. Evelyn Horner, Burien wife of George Horner, died at their home on Hutton hill Monday evening after several weeks' illness. Mrs. Horner was 32 years of age, and had been the mother of nine children, being survived by seven, the oldest 3 years of age and the youngest four weeks. Her father, Henry Horner, and four brothers—Alfred, Homer, Morris Horner, William Horner, and Aaron Horner, reside in

TO SPREAD A MESSAGE

Stowe, a brother, Carl Hornet, lives in North Troy, and another, Ed, in British Columbia. Mr and Mrs. Burner moved here from Cambridge last fall. The funeral here will be held at the house at nine o'clock this morning and the remains will be taken to Jeffersonville for burial.

According to the annual report of the auditors of the town of Stowe ordered were drawn by the selectmen for $9,497.60 by Justice C. M. Watts, 47.8 cents.

and notes dra

and notes drawn by selectmen for money borrowed and interest on same, $11,822.95, drawn by road commissioner, $5,464, by H. T. Raymond for State highway work, $26,211, by the overseer's report the cost to the town of the town farm was $48,134; outside aid $488.00. There are 15 cows and two yearlings on the farm. 88 weeks of board were furnished and there are 12 present aeron inmates. Orders drawn by overseer $2,500.48. Cemetery commission's report shows orders drawn $106.00.

The cost to the

The cost to the town of the Akoley Memorial building was $1,027. School orders amounted to $885.69. Summary of all funds Town received, $96,76.23, paid $34,700.00, school, received $5,598.85, paid $9,580.17, highway $5,370.43, paid $5,441.29. Cemetery, received $246.13, paid $1,000.00. The librarian's report states number of volumes loaned 4,617, and asks to have the location of the library indicated in some more public manner, and mentions the need of more funds to replace standard work-also, the standard works, for repairs and supplies. The report of the health officer states that there were in 1944 33 cases of whooping cough, eight cases of mumps, two of diphtheria, two of chickenpox, one of German measles, and four cases of poliomyelitis with no deaths from any of these diseases. There were 37 deaths and 37 births. The general health in town for 1944 was much above the average. All are asked to co-operate with the local board of health in reporting cases in which there are any indications in protonotarsis.

There will be a masquerade social at Unity Church Monday evening, February 22. The Stowe high school basketball team will play the Montpelier high school team here Friday evening in the school hall. After the game the Peeslee orchestra will furnish music for a dance.

me at the Abbey

at the Abel Memorial building. John Jones, who has been confined to his bed by illness since Saturday, is improving. The condition of O. E. Gier remains critical. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Bindow were guests of Mrs. H. J. Munson in Morrisville Wednesday. Mrs. T. C. Wright is in Waterbury on account of the illness of her father, Daniel Jones. A daughter was born February 16 to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Robinson in Moscow. The warnings for the annual snow, coming at 5:30, looked ominous.

R village meeting
NE day evening M

(Continued on page twelve.)